

'tamo'
bien

Sobran los billetes de 100, yeah

To' lo' mio
estan bien,
tamo' 'tamos
bien

El dinero me llueve

Ay diablo
que aguacero

Y si mañana me muero...Ya estoy acostumbra'o a estar siempre en el cielo,

En
privado siempre vuelo

En el cuello tengo hielo

Joda, que se
joda, que se
joda, hey, hey

Vivo como soñé a los 17, eh, eh

El que no
logró na' es porque no le mete (Eh)

Dime qué
esperas tú, uh (Uh)

Si alguien
puede,
eres tú (Uhh)

La vida no
tiene repetición

No te preocupes
tamo'
bien

En la cuenta par de ceros

Aunque pa'
casa no ha
llega'o la luz

Gracias a Dios
porque tengo
salud, eh, eh
(Amén)

'tamo'
bien

'tamo' bien. is a short form of "estamos bien" which means "we are fine". At the time the song was released, Bad Bunny had not been in the public for a while. So he made the song to let people know that he was fine.

'tamo'
bien

It is important to remember that Bad Bunny is from Puerto Rico. Caribbeans tend to cut words, that's why he says 'tamo bien instead of " Estamos bien"

To' lo' mio
estan bien,
tamo' 'tamo'
bien

This is a short form of: Todos los mios estan bien: "All my people are fine".
Here we can see again the Caribbean style of making words shorter.

Sobran los
billetes de 100, yeah

He means that he and his friends have plenty of 100
dollar bills.

Preocupes

No te preocupe'
tamo'
bien

El dinero
me llueve

"Don't
you worry.
We are fine"

I'm not sure if there's a better way to say this in English, but he's saying "Money is raining on me".
Meaning that he has bunch of money.

Ay diablo
que
aguacero

Aguacero would be translated in English to downpour. He is using this line to emphasize the previous one- "El dinero me llueve (Hey)"

Ay diablo
que
aguacero

Meaning that a lot of money is raining on him. Actually, he has another song named " El dinero me llueve" Look it up acostumbrado

Y si mañana me
muero...Ya estoy
acostumbra'o a estar siempre en el
cielo

En
privado
siempre
vuelo

"If tomorrow I die, I am used to being always in the " sky".
This line could be a little confusing,
because in Spanish
the word cielo can mean "heaven" and
"sky"

Here he says that he always flies in his private jet. In the previous line he says that he was used to always being in the sky, meaning that he takes flights often.

En el
cuello
tengo
hielo

" Ice always on my neck" he means that he wears jewelry and Diamonds on his neck.

Joda, que se
joda, que se
joda, hey, hey

He is answering to a previous line "Aunque dicen por ahí que
están hablando de mí, hey (Hey)" People are talking about him. So, he answered with this line which means
" f.ck them, f.ck them"

Vivo como
soñé a los 17, eh, eh

" I'm living what I dreamed when I was 17"

El que no
logró na'es
porque no le
mete (Eh)

nada

Here he is saying that if you did not make it, It's because you did not work hard. Meterle means to work hard.

Dime qué
esperas
tú, uh (Uh)

" Tell me, what are you waiting for?" He is encouraging people to go and follow their dream.

Si alguien
puede,
eres tú (Uhh)

" If
somebody can that's you"

La vida no
tiene
repetición

He is telling people to go and do what they like because life only happens once.

Aunque pa'
casa no ha
llega'o la luz

pa': para Llega'o:
llegado

Gracias a Dios
porque tengo
salud, eh, eh
(Amén)

" Even though electricity isn't back at home" He's referring to Puerto Rico and the problems they had without electricity after Hurricane Maria.

" Thank God
because I am healthy" He is completing the previous line.
Thanking God,
regardless of the situation he is healthy.